

PRESS RELEASE

Contact: Diane Potter, Donor Relations Manager
518-644-9673, dpotter@tnc.org

For Immediate Release
July 26, 2006

LAND & WATER CONSERVATION CELEBRATION OFFERS FULL DAY OF ACTIVITIES

Bolton Landing, NY – The Lake George Land Conservancy is planning a full day of activities to highlight and celebrate land protection in the Lake George watershed. The 7th Annual Land and Water Conservation Celebration is scheduled for Monday, July 31st, 2006. Space is still available for the following field trips and nature presentations:

10 AM – 11:30 AM, Adirondack Cooperative Loon Program Multimedia Presentation at the Hague Community Center

10 AM – 1:00 PM, Herbal Exploration at the Gull Bay Preserve

10 AM – 1:00 PM, Botany Hike at Pilot Knob Ridge Preserve

Registration fee for all field trips and nature presentations is $20 per person and includes a box lunch. Please come prepared with plenty of water, sun and bug protection, and appropriate, comfortable clothing and footwear.

The Conservancy's Annual Meeting will be held at the Lake George Club at 3:30 PM on Monday. There is no charge to attend the Annual Meeting.

At 5:00 PM on Monday, the festivities continue at the Lake George Club with the Evening Gala and Program, with live music by Captain Squeeze and the Zydeco Moshers, cocktails and light fare. Tickets for the evening gala and program are $100 per person. Rand Wentworth, President of the Washington, DC-based Land Trust Alliance is the keynote speaker. The evening program also features the presentation of the 2006 Henry M. Rowan Conservation Award to honor outstanding contributions to the protection of Lake George.

Pre-registration is required for all events. Please call (518) 644-9673 by 3:00 PM, Friday, July 28, 2006, to register and receive directions to the events.

###