

LAKE GEORGE LAND CONSERVANCY

2019 WALKS & TALKS

Most events are free but require advance registration. Visit lglc.org for more information, updates, and to register online.

Stay in the know! Follow us on Facebook and Instagram @HikeLakeGeorge and join our email list to get up-to-date event notices and changes.

LLS: Living Lands Series—free summer evening presentations

Thursday, June 6: Volunteer Work Day—Invasive Honeysuckle Removal

10 AM - 1 PM; Cook Mt Preserve, Ticonderoga

Help the LGLC as we continue to remove invasive shrubby honeysuckle from the forest understory at Cook Mt Preserve. Tools provided; long sleeves/pants, sturdy shoes, and insect repellent strongly recommended.

Saturday, June 8: Wilderness Survival and Backcountry Safety Workshop

10 AM - 1 PM; Pole Hill Pond Forest Preserve, Bolton

Licensed guide David Muska of Ondatra Adventures will lead this workshop to explore fundamental skills and tools of wilderness survival, including shelter building, edible and medicinal plants, fire building, water purification and more. This is a great course for hikers, backpackers, hunters, and outdoors people alike. Geared towards adults. $25 per person

Thursday, June 20: 2nd Annual Summer Solstice Soirée

6 - 8 PM; Bolton Landing Brewing Co., 4933 Lake Shore Dr., Bolton Landing
Celebrate the true start to summer! Hosted by the LGLC Next Generation Committee, the Soirée is fun and casual, open to anyone interested in learning about the LGLC and the new Bolton Recreational Hub Plan. Light appetizers, cash bar, and raffles to benefit the purchase of a new kiosk for Amy's Park. Free, suggested donation of $15 at the door.

Wednesday, June 26: LLS - A Hemlock Forest Story

5:30 PM; LGLC Office, 4905 Lake Shore Dr., Bolton Landing

Charlotte Malmberg of NYS Hemlock Initiative at Cornell University will join LGLC staff for this discussion about our hemlock forests and current threats from invasive insects like the hemlock woolly adelgid (HWA).

Friday, July 5: Lake George 7th Annual Hike-A-Thon & After Party

The Hike-A-Thon is full, but you can still join us at the event's first ever After Party, 11 AM - 3 PM at the Charles R. Wood Festival Commons in Lake George Village. Free ice cream from Stewart's Shops and cold drinks from Adirondack Pub & Brewery as supplies last. Helicopter (no rides), Carl Heilman and other sponsors on-site. More info at LakeGeorgeHikeAThon.org.

Wednesday, July 10: LLS - Adirondack Place Names

5:30 PM; LGLC Office, 4905 Lake Shore Dr., Bolton Landing

Have you ever wondered, "Why is that thing called that?" Author and adventurer Erik Schlimmer will decode 100 Adirondack place names in rousing detail, supported by a backdrop of his photos from the wilderness.

LGLC | 4905 LAKE SHORE DR | PO BOX 1250
BOLTON LANDING, NY 12814 | 518-644-9673 | LGLC.ORG

@HikeLakeGeorge #HikeLakeGeorge

Wednesday, July 17: LLS - Below the Surface...

5:30 PM; LGLC Office, 4905 Lake Shore Dr., Bolton Landing

DEC Aquatic Biologist Jim Pinheiro will lead this presentation on the aquatic life of Lake George and other Adirondack lakes and ponds.

Wednesday, July 24: LLS - Landscapes Lost and Found

5:30 PM; LGLC Office, 4905 Lake Shore Dr., Bolton Landing

In conjunction with the Bolton Historical Museum, this discussion on the Museum's summer exhibit, "Landscapes Lost and Found: Two Centuries of Art from Bolton Landing," will be led by artists Rebecca Smith and Victoria Palermo, and moderated by author Michael Coffey.

Friday, August 2: Land & Water Conservation Celebration

LGLC's 20th annual dinner and auction fundraiser at the Inn at Erlowest on Lake George. Live music by The New York Players. $125-$150 per person.

Wednesday, August 7: LLS - Adirondack Loons

5:30 PM; LGLC Office, 4905 Lake Shore Dr., Bolton Landing

Discover the biology and behaviors of our native loons with wildlife veterinarian and biologist Dr. Nina Schoch with the Adirondack Center for Loon Conservation.

Wednesday, August 14: LLS - When the Railroads Came to Lake George

5:30 PM; LGLC Office, 4905 Lake Shore Dr., Bolton Landing

Lake George Town and Village Historian Margy Mannix will present this story of the D&H Railway, trolley, and the incline railway on Prospect Mountain.

Saturday, August 17: LGLC Annual Meeting and Summer Picnic

11 AM - 2 PM; Up Yonda Farm, 5239 Lake Shore Dr, Bolton Landing

Join us for our free, family-friendly picnic at Up Yonda featuring local food trucks, free drinks, kids activities and more. Schedule will include presentations about LGLC's past year of conservation activities, and more!

Wednesday, August 21: LLS - Adirondack Wildlife Refuge

5:30 PM; LGLC Office, 4905 Lake Shore Dr., Bolton Landing

Join Wendy Hall from the Adirondack Wildlife Refuge as she presents on rehabbing wildlife in the Adirondacks, including wolves, foxes and bears, coyotes, bobcats, a porcupine, opossum, owls, hawks, peregrine falcon, ravens, and a turkey vulture.

Saturday, September 28: 3rd Annual Amy's Race

7 AM - 1 PM; Amy's Park and Bolton Landing Brewing Company, Bolton

A true trail run, this 4.5-mile race course follows trails throughout Amy's Park in Bolton, including up a mountain, over bridges and through the beautiful woods surrounding an active beaver pond. Awards ceremony, raffle prizes, and after party. LGLC.org/events-and-programs/amys-race

Be a Trail Host!

Do you have a favorite hiking trail? Like talking to people? Want to help us keep our trails clean and safe? Contact Monica Dore, mdore@lglc.org, to learn how you can be an LGLC Trail Host!

Also looking for volunteers to help monitor hemlock trees for the invasive hemlock woolly adelgid. Contact Alex Novick, anovick@lglc.org, for info.

LGLC | 4905 LAKE SHORE DR | PO BOX 1250
BOLTON LANDING, NY 12814 | 518-644-9673 | LGLC.ORG

@HikeLakeGeorge #HikeLakeGeorge